

For immediate release

Nyon, 30 June 2026

Press release

Paléo 2026: Full Line-up and Timetable Revealed!

Paléo Festival Nyon has unveiled the full programme and timetable for its upcoming event, taking place from 21 to 26 July. Expect a truly gargantuan line-up featuring 200 concerts and performances. Beyond the main stages, Paléo also shines a spotlight on circus and street arts at La Ruche, in addition to intimate live sets at L'Escale in the Village du Monde, and a welcoming programme at Quartier Libre, accessible without a festival ticket.

Buraka Som Sistema joins the bill following Saint Levant's cancellation

It is with regret that Paléo announces the cancellation of Saint Levant's performance due to circumstances beyond our control. Stepping in is Portugal's electrifying Buraka Som Sistema, completing an exceptional line-up on Thursday, 23 July, alongside Gorillaz and Theodora. Festivalgoers wishing to do so can resell their tickets via the official Ticket Exchange.

Nordic colours and flavours at the Village du Monde

Miniature fjords, brightly coloured cabins and shimmering Northern Lights set the scene as this year's Village du Monde heads to the Far North. Alongside performances on the Dôme stage, a dozen artists will also play intimate sets at L'Escale. Expect ancient folk traditions (Värttinä, Hialøsa), shamanic trance (SKÁLD), Arctic rap (Tarrak) and Nordic pop-rock (Ásgeir). Lose yourself in the atmosphere over a smørrebrød, unwind in the sauna or set off in search of the Northern Lights.

La Ruche harnesses the power of nature

Nature never asks for permission. It arrives gently at first, then sweeps everything before it. This year, La Ruche pays poetic tribute to its untamed force, with strolling singer-performers roaming the festival site (Collectif Volkanik), travelling sound experimenters mixing live electronic music from a mobile caravan stage (Les Frères Jacquard), and a fearless balancing artist sawing through the very branch he's standing on (Muchmuche Company). In total, around ten companies and shows will be part of the fun.

Quartier Libre welcomes everyone to the party

Just a stone's throw from the Festival entrance, Quartier Libre throws open its doors to everyone. Expect a funfair, games and family-friendly activities, a hand-picked selection of food stalls and bars, live music, artistic performances and plenty of surprises... all free to enjoy, no ticket required, from midday until the early hours.

Paléo Festival Nyon – Useful resources

- Timetable
- La Ruche
- Village du Monde
- Quartier Libre